

Summary:

What have you learned from the article or other papers about this topic? (cancerous lesions detection: medical and IT side)

Are all masks fitting well? Do all images have all masks?

Have you noticed repeating characteristics of cancerous lesions?

Have you noticed something interesting about pen marks? hair?

Did you try evaluating your annotations?

Did you as a group decide on some kind of guidelines for annotation?

What disagreement did you as a group have in terms of annotations?

Note: Version history is taken into account - all group members have to have meaningful contributions!